Subject: International Support for Professor Camilo Prado Román

Dear Members of the Faculty Council,

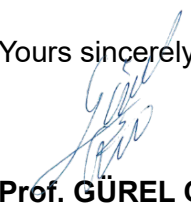

On behalf of Istanbul University, I am pleased to express our strong support for Professor Camilo Prado Román as a candidate for Dean of the Faculty of Economic and Business Sciences at Universidad Rey Juan Carlos.

In recent years, Istanbul University and Universidad Rey Juan Carlos have developed valuable academic cooperation. This collaboration has included the publication of research papers in our journals, Journal of Tourismology (DOAJ index) and Journal of Economy, Culture and Society (WoS index). We have also worked together in organizing international academic conferences and promoting the exchange of knowledge among researchers.

Through these activities, we have recognized Professor Prado Román's academic quality, professionalism, and commitment to international collaboration. His experience and leadership would make an important contribution to the development of the Faculty. We believe that Professor Prado Román has the vision and qualifications to strengthen research, international partnerships, and academic excellence at the Faculty of Economic and Business Sciences.

Istanbul University therefore gives its full support and highest recommendation to Professor Camilo Prado Román.

Yours sincerely,

Prof. GÜREL ÇETİN
